Roy McKittrick Wins Over Clark

Donnell Polls As Many Votes as All of his Six Opponents Combined

BULLETIN

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—(P)—Returns from 4,030 of 4,512 precincts in Tuesday's Democratic senatorial primary gave Roy McKittrick, attorney general, 157,555 votes to 138,863 polled by the incumbent, Sen. Bennett Clark.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—(P)—The name of United States Senator Bennett Champ Clark was added to the list of primary casualties among senate veterans today as a steadily mounting lead for Attorney General Roy McKittrick indicated Clark's defeat for Democratic renomination in Missouri.

McKittrick, a strong supporter of President Roosevelt and endorsed by the CIO political action committee, had a lead of about 20,000 votes as the primary count nears completion. An absentee vote estimated at around 30,000 still remained a factor, however. The mail votes won't be counted until Friday.

Clark was vigorously assailed as an "isolationist" by McKittrick in a bitter, often personal campaign, which attracted national attention. The Republican senatorial nomination went to Gov. Forrest C. Donnell, who four years ago was the only Republican elected to state office in Missouri. Donnell

J. E. (Buck) Taylor of Chillicothe looked like a winner in the Democratic primary for attorney general and State Senator George H. Miller of Sedalia held an apparently safe lead on the Republican ticket.

Returns from 3,093 precincts gave: Taylor 85,858; Dwight Roberts of Kansas City 48,644; Olliver W. Nolen of Paris 44,809; and former state senator L. N. Searcy of Eminence 42,308.

In the Republican race, 3,038 precincts gave Miller 75,102; Rep. Walter E. Bailey of Carthage 58,350; Lawrence Presley, St. Louis, 43,625 and John J. Robinson, Maysville, 42,492.

won overwhelmingly over a split field of six opponents, with 121,117 votes to 58,467 for his nearest competitor in 3,672 out of 4,512 precincts.

Lebanon in the Picture

Both apparent winners of the gubernatorial nominations came from the little Ozark town of Lebanon, with State Sen. Phil M. Donnelly an easy winner over his three rivals on the Democratic ticket, while Jean Paul Bradshaw rode a growing lead to almost sure Republican victory.

Donnelly ran over 40,000 ahead of his closest pursuer, and Bradshaw's margin grew past 20,000 votes.

The vote in 3,904 of 4,512 precincts was McKittrick 155,864 and Clark 137,057.

A big anti-Clark vote in St. Louis—Clark's present address—was the deciding factor in defeat.

With most votes counted, McKittrick led 45,193 to 28,132 in the city. Clark carried Jackson county, including Kansas City, with 29,355 to McKittrick's 16,708 on.

No Comment From Sen. Bennett Clark

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—(P)—U. S. Sen. Bennett C. Clark declined to comment this morning on the primary returns which showed him trailing by nearly 20,000 votes in his bid for Democratic renomination.

"I don't even know what the vote is—I just waked up," he told the Associated Press.

Informed of the latest vote tabulation, he said "I have nothing to say now."

McKittrick's Comment

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 2.—(P)—Attorney General Roy McKittrick, jubilant at his apparent triumph over incumbent Bennett C. Clark for Democratic renomination to the U. S. Senate, declared today that Clark's defeat "shows the Democrats of Missouri have approved the president's foreign policy."

W. W. Blain is Far in Lead

The nomination of W. W. Blain of Sedalia for state senator from the Fifteenth District over C. P. (Chinc) Jung of Cole Camp, on the Republican ticket, seemed assured with Blain holding a substantial lead in unofficial and incomplete returns.

The Associated Press tabulation at noon, with 32 of 119 precincts in, gave Blain 1,543 votes over 1,165 for Jung.

It was understood that in the four counties of the Fifteenth District that Blain had impressive leads, topped by a 1,408 margin in Pettis county. Unofficial reports indicated he is ahead in Hickory county by over 400 votes; 250 in Benton, and 50 or more in Saline.

Hamilton Fish Is Renominated

By the Associated Press

Rep. Hamilton Fish weathered the opposition of Republican presidential nominee Thomas E. Dewey in his bid for GOP renomination in New York.

In Kansas, U. S. Senator Clyde M. Reed, Parsons publisher, won Republican nomination handily over Carl E. Friend, Lawrence lumberman.

Fish has represented the 29th district in New York for 24 years.

St. Louis Vote Important Factor

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—(P)—The big vote of St. Louis, Missouri's largest city, was the deciding factor in two major primary races, Tuesday's primary, swinging the apparent nominations of Attorney General Roy McKittrick for U. S. Senator on the Democratic ticket and Jean Paul Bradshaw for governor on the Republican.

It contributed materially to Phil M. Donnelly's winning of the Democratic governorship nomination.

Complete St. Louis returns gave McKittrick 45,557 and Sen. Bennett C. Clark 28,355; Bradshaw 45,837 and Charles Ferguson 20,955; and Donnelly 34,169 and Roger T. Sermon 21,399.

Concedes Defeat

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 2.—(P)—Rep. W. P. Lambertson who created a stir by criticizing the war records of President Roosevelt's sons, today conceded his defeat for renomination in the primary yesterday in which the state's only other two Republican congressmen facing contests were victorious.

Milkweed is Badly Needed To Save Lives

Pettis Countians Organizing to Watch for Plants

Milkweed to make lifesaver jackets for every Pettis county service man is the goal of the milkweed collectors in the county.

The county committee at a meeting last week made plans for the collection campaign early so that everyone may be watching for the plants and be ready to gather every available pod when it ripens.

The personnel of the county committee is as follows: J. U. Morris, chairman; Foster Scotten, vice chairman; Ray Freund, vice chairman; Dorothy Bacon, secretary and Ernest Baker, treasurer. Other members of the committee include Mrs. A. W. Klang, Miss Nettie Lamm, Mrs. Harold Dean, Olen Monsees, C. E. Ferguson, L. H. Archias, Boyd Calvird, Oscar DeWolf, L. W. Satorius, J. H. Brunkhorst, Milt Overstreet, and W. P. Pinkepank.

Because of the war need for milkweed floss, the committee assumes that every land owner is willing to permit those who gather the pods to trespass on his land for that purpose. Any person who does not give that permission is asked to notify the county committee or the person in charge for that school district.

Those in Charge

Plans have been made on the school district basis. The school district and the names of those in charge are listed here:

Oak Grove, Elder Ridge, Dunksburg, Brookside—Mrs. Raymond Whitall; Houstonia—Roy Freund;

Allies Stab Deeply Into German Lines

By Gladwin Hill

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Aug. 2.—(P)—Multiple prongs of British and American armored forces stabbed deeply into twisted German lines today, striding toward Brest and Rennes in Brittany, breaking out in the center and threatening to circle three huge pockets of the enemy.

Marshall Erwin Rommel—German broadcasts confirmed he is in the hospital with a brain concussion from Allied air attack—appeared faced with fresh disaster as Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey's British Second Army cracked through the center of the line and reached a position 13 miles south of Caumont.

Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's spearheads raced toward Rennes, in the center of the Brittany peninsula, and were declared to be well on their way toward Brest, France's great port at the western tip of the peninsula. This steel tip was already some miles past Pontorson, 13 miles southwest of Avranches. The Rennes-bound column, Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons in London, might already be approaching that objective.

The many armored fingers probing the confused and distraught German defenses threatened not only the Germans in Brittany with encirclement.

Threaten To Trap Nazis

A powerful American thrust up the See river to Cues, 13 miles east of Avranches, also threatened to pocket Germans between there and the British forces four miles north of Vire. Sixteen miles separated the American and British spearheads, which, if joined, would trap all the enemy in the Tassy, Torigni, Percy and Villedieu areas.

On the right of this American column pointed toward Paris another spearhead shoved farther up the Selune river to Le Buat, nine miles southeast of Avranches.

In the forming pocket between these two American columns and the British the Americans completed the mopping up of Villedieu and captured Percy and Tassy-Sur-Vire. Here the Germans were falling back so fast their front could not even be located.

The British breakthrough already was curling eastward behind the Germans who so long had stood staunchly southwest of Caen, and a British staff officer told front line reporters:

"Marshal Rommel must stand and fight on the high ground between Villers-Bocage and Caen, and I think we shall destroy him there."

Already the Germans were stumbling back out of a pocket north of Villers-Bocage, and already the British had mopped up the Homme forest south of Caumont.

The British were reported on the outskirts of Villers-Bocage.

While the British at last appeared on the way to liquidating the Bocage country keystone of Rommel's defenses below Caen, the American stab across Brittany was as if through soft butter.

Germans Fight Violently to Hold Warsaw

Swift Russian Plunge Traps Nazis in Latvia, Estonia

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, Aug. 2.—(P)—Thousands of Germans trapped in Latvia and Estonia by a swift Russian plunge to the Baltic sea 30 miles west of Riga thrashed at the Russian noose today while other Nazis fought violently on a 20-mile suburban arc in defense of besieged Warsaw.

Northeast of the invested Polish capital, youthful Gen. Ivan Cherniashkovsky reopened a huge drive toward East Prussia on a 200-mile front, striking within 10 miles of the pre-war frontier of the Junker generals.

(The German communiqué suggested that Russian troops were pouring across the broad and swift Vistula river south of Warsaw, asserting that Nazi planes "sank" on the Vistula 28 Soviet ferries crammed with troops.) The commun-iqué said "heavy and fluctuating fighting" was continuing on the approaches of East Prussia between Augustow, eight miles from the frontier, and the Memel river. The Germans acknowledged loss of Kalvaria, Jelgava and Wilkowischken in Latvia and said they recaptured Birsene. Fighting still was reported against a Russian bridgehead over the Vistula river below Warsaw. Continued Russian advances toward the Beskid pass through the Carpathians to Czechoslovakia were reported.)

Believes End Of War is Near

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Prime Minister Churchill said today he felt that the final end of the war against the Axis would come sooner, perhaps much sooner, than he once expected.

"On every battle front all over the world," he told the house of commons, "the armies of Germany and Japan are recoiling."

"I am increasingly led to feel that the interval between the defeat of Hitler and the defeat of Japan will be shorter—perhaps much shorter—than I had at one time supposed."

He mentioned no dates. But, confident and cheerful, he sketched bright pictures of a swiftly approaching victory. He spoke of "four or five minutes before the house, which had just voted itself a seven-week holiday."

Aside from the Japanese reference, the most definite statement he made on this score was:

"I fear greatly the raising of false hopes, but I no longer feel bound to deny that victory may come perhaps soon."

In the same vein he said that "One cannot take more than a sweeping glance of the world as we approach the end of its fifth year and as it approaches perhaps its closing stage."

The prime minister disclosed that the Normandy invasion and the coordinated Red army offensive resulted from an agreement with Premier Stalin at Teheran.

Turkey Joins United Nations

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Aug. 2.—(P)—Turkey aligned herself with the United Nations today to the extent of breaking off diplomatic and economic relations with Germany and there were broad indications that powerful Soviet Russia soon would consider a new Finnish request for an armistice guaranteeing Finland's independence.

It was reported reliably in Stockholm that Marshal Baron Mannerheim had received Russian assurances before he assumed the presidency of Finland yesterday.

Berlin broadcasts promptly heralded Turkey's action as a "prelude to war."

Helsinki reports received in Stockholm said German garrisons already were moving out of southern Finland.

Miss Hazel Palmer Winner Over Three Opponents in GOP Race for Collector

The primary election in Pettis county, Tuesday, had a tinge of both manpower and voter shortage at the polls. The manpower shortage was evident with the boys and girls handing out candidate material as the voters walked up to their voting precincts, there being only a few older women, and hardly any men doing this work.

The vote shortage was noted in the total vote cast Tuesday, compared to the total vote cast in the general election of 1940. The vote for the two top offices on the primary ballot Tuesday gave the Democratic candidates for U. S. senator a total of 3,148 votes and the Republicans 3,165 or a total of 6,313 votes; for the governor's race on the Democratic ballot 3,277 and Republicans 3,292 or a total of 6,569 votes.

The vote of the primary of 1940 gave the candidates for senator 6,250 Democratic and 1,983 Republican votes or a total of 8,233 votes. This year's primary election is short of that total by 1,920 votes.

One Woman Candidate

The name of only one woman candidate appeared on the ballot in this county this year, that being Miss Hazel Palmer, Republican candidate for collector of revenue. Miss Palmer holds the office at the present time by virtue of appointment to fill the unexpired term of the late J. B. "Doc" Greer, who passed away before taking over his second term. She defeated Sheriff C. Ross Bothwell and Wilmer Steeples for the nomination.

In the race for the nominations for sheriff on both tickets considerable interest was displayed. The absentee ballot could change the vote in the Republican race with E. W. "Ed" Goetz having 986 votes forty more than his nearest competitor Archie Smith with 946. B. B. Bettis was third with 818 and W. J. Dunkin has 572, these votes being unofficial.

In the Democratic race Mike Donahoe has a substantial lead with 1,557, against Forrest Poindexter with 818 and W. J. "Bill" Paul with 797.

Many Absentee Ballots

The only other race there is a possible chance the absentee vote may have an effect on is that of collector of revenue in the Democratic race between J. K. Lacey, Jr., who has 1,655 votes against 1,476 for Milton J. Smith, a difference of 179 votes, but in all probability the absentee vote in either party will not amount to that figure.

Absentee ballots received by County Collector James Green up to noon today totaled 149 war ballots.

May Surrender, But No Terms

LONDON, Aug. 2.—(P)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden assured the house of commons today there would not be any peace made with Germany in the next seven weeks—although he held out the possibility that the enemy might surrender in that period.

Opposing a government motion for a commons recess until Sept. 26, Laborite John Lawson said if the Allies were to beat Germany in that period the government then would make peace—and he didn't like the sort of peace they would make.

Opposition Of Japs On Tinian Being Erased

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEAD-QUARTERS, PEARL HARBOR, Aug. 2.—(P)—Fast-moving ma-ines, winding up a nine-day opera-tion, have erased all organized Japanese opposition in Tinian and an intense bombing of an estimat-ed 10,000 Nipponese on Guam is paving the way for complete con-quest of that island.

These developments in the pro-gressive American sweep over the south Marianas were reported Tuesday night by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz in two communiques.

The same second and fourth Marine divisions which helped in the bloody investment of Saipan wound up Monday, July 31, the drive they began July 23 on the fine air base island of Tinian.

On Guam, as Yank conquerors of the south half straightened their lines with advances of a half to three miles, carrier planes spread death among enemy con-centrations in the north part, in-creasing a Nipponese toll which already exceeds 6,000.

Over 2500 Killed

More than 2,500 others have been killed on Tinian. An addi-tional 2,000 are being cut to pieces in the cave and beach area of Marpo Point on South Tinian by marines who earlier aided in the slaughter of more than 21,000 Nipponese on Saipan.

The leatherneck sweep down Tinian's 12-mile length, aided by a destructive secret weapon, over-ran two airfields the Japanese built.

On Guam, northbound Yanks occupied four small towns while straightening out their line which extends from a mile north of the captured capital city of Agaña on the West coast to Pago bay on the east.

The fierce bombing and rocket attack plainly indicates the tacti-cians are doing their utmost by air and sea to prevent as much bloodshed as possible among the American troops when they drive into the rugged northern area.

Nimitz issued three communi-ques today on the Marianas. The first one reported the marines had driven the enemy into an area on Tinian of about 1½ square miles.

The marines had, in effect, created a beachhead in reverse by driving to Tinian's southeastern shores. Enemy remnants caught there in the cliffs and caves had no boats for escape, no place to go if they could get away.

Congress Into Controversy

Compensation On Unemployment To Face Debate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(P)—Congress ran into a full-grown controversy over post-war unem-ployment compensation Tuesday before returning members were well settled in their seats upon the return from the summer po-litical recess.

With all reconversion and de-mobilization legislation awaiting committee action, actually sessions were listless and sparsely attend-ed.

But the lines of future debate were clearly drawn by two de-velopments:

1. Senator George (D-Ga.), finance committee chairman, moved to take part of the reconver-sion program out of the hands of the senate military committee, with introduction of a "states' rights" unemployment compensa-tion bill which he predicted his committee will approve tomorrow.

2. A military subcommittee put its approval on a composite gen-eral reconversion bill providing up to $35 a week unemployment pay for the millions now in war pro-duction, with standards set by the federal government.

Propose Broad Powers

The subcommittee measure, described by Chairman Murray (D-Mont.) as a composite of a bill he introduced with George, and another by Senator Kilgore (D-W. Va.), proposes creation of an Office of War Mobilization and Adjustment with broad pow-ers over the nation's economy.

Senator Revercomb (R-W. Va.) vigorously dissented from the conclusions of the subcommittee majority, Murray and Senator Truman (D-Mo.). He protested especially against unemployment or "interim placement benefits" ranging from $12 a week for those usually earning $150 to $300 a year to $35 for those normally drawing $2,400 or more.

The George measure would leave to the states the fixing of

Have a "Coke" = What's the hurry?

...a way to be carefree in the Caribbean

Between spells of duty at our southern outposts, the American soldier knows how to relax. Have a "Coke", says a thirsty Yank, and it's like a friendly invita-tion to fun or a chin-fest...the same as when you serve Coca-Cola in your home. From the Caribbean to the Arctic, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the high-sign of friendliness many places overseas.

Delayed for more than two years, investigation of the Pearl Harbor catastrophe is under way by three-member Army and Navy boards of inquiry. Army board consists of Lieut.-Gen. the seeds turn brown, it is time to gather them.

By suspending from the waist the mesh bags which are provided, one can have both hands free to pick the pods and drop them into the bag.

A full bag weighs about 15 pounds. They are then tied and hung over a fence to cure. Rain does not harm them. After about two to five weeks, or when the pods are sufficiently dry through to the center, the bags of pods can be sold. The test for proper curing is that the pods will sound like paper crunching as one grabs onto the bag to crush them.

In the curing process, the bags should be at least a foot off the ground when hung on the fence. This will permit the air to circulate around and through the bags. The fence selected on which to hang the bags should be free of grass and weeds.

Only the open mesh bag should be used in which to pick and cure the pods.

Fair Grounds

The central collecting station for Pettis county is at the State Fair Grounds, Ernest Baker, whose office is in the administration building there, is acting as treasurer of the committee and will pay 20 cents for each full bag when it is delivered to him.

J. U. Morris, chairman of the county committee, urges that all Pettis county families recognize the importance of helping collect this milkweed floss as it is the only source of filling for lifesavers needed for every man and woman who goes onto the water, either by boat or by plane.

There is only one factory in the United States to handle the pods and floss and it is the duty of every citizen to get the raw material to them.

4-H clubs, boy scouts, girl scouts, junior garden club members, and all other youth are asked to report to the school district chairmen and their leaders their willingness to locate and gather milkweed pods.

The districts who need pickers are to notify Ernest Baker, who will recruit Boy Scouts and Sedalia leaders to go into those areas.

Those in town who can furnish cars to take Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Junior Garden club members and others to the country are asked to notify and register their cars with Ernest Baker.

Roy McKittick Wins Over Clark

nearly complete returns. McKittick also led outstate.

Upset No Surprise

The apparent Clark upset came as no surprise to veteran observers who knew the senator was in a very tight race against the three times attorney general. McKittick lambasted Clark for his frequent votes against early defense measures and his failure to support President Roosevelt consistently.

There are approximately 30,000 absentee ballots to be counted, and it appeared certain these must be tabulated before Clark could be counted out of the race. Clark entered the senate early in 1933, the son of the famous Champ Clark of Missouri.

On the house side all incumbents apparently won re-election, nine of the 13 without a contest. The vote apparently will not far exceed 500,000 only about half the state's registered voters.

The Clark situation makes it possible Missouri will have two new senators in congress as his colleague Senator Harry Truman will retire if elected vice president on the Democratic ticket.

Donnell polled about as many votes as all his six opponents combined. His nearest rival was Howard V. Stephens, St. Louis shoe manufacturer, who was backed by National Committeeman Barak T. Mattingly.

Returns in the tabulation from 3,672 out of 4,512 precincts gave Donnell 124,117; Stephens 58,467; Mayor Charles A. Shaw of Clayton 38,758; Charles E. Rendlen of Hannibal 17,722; Charles P. Noell of Pacific 12,954; William McKinley Thomas of St. Louis 3,902 and Herman Grosby, St. Louis 2,506.

3 to 2 Lead
Donnelly led his closest challenger, Mayor Roger T. Sermon of Independence, by a vote of about 3 to 2.

Returns from 3,806 precincts gave Donnelly 131,183 and Sermon 90,309. Edgar Shook of Kansas City was running a poor third with 54,776 and Floyd P. Lee, St. Louis pension organizer, was far behind with 18,347.

Donnelly long has been well known in Missouri politics, having served 22 years in the legislature where he sponsored some of the state's major legislation. He is 53 years old.

Bradshaw, 38 years old and the youngest gubernatorial candidate, held a slightly widening lead over Chas. Ferguson of Willow Springs, former state GOP chairman, who was ahead in early returns last night but fell back as St. Louis poured in a big bloc of votes for Bradshaw.

Mattingly endorsed Bradshaw, who is Laclede county prosecutor. Bradshaw and Donnelly are rival lawyers from the same little town of Lebanon — 8,000 population — in south central Missouri.

With 3,663 precincts tabulated Bradshaw had 127,287, Ferguson 107,362. Dr. James Stewart of Jefferson City, state health commissioner, was definitely out of the race with only 32,202 votes.

by the drive to the sea west of Riga. Once estimated at 30 divisions of perhaps 300,000 men, there was no official estimate of the number trapped in an area about the size of South Carolina.

The Red army had cut and was astride all railroads and highways leading from the Baltic states to East Prussia. From Tukums on the coastal railroad, Gen. New Weapon Goes Into Sea

By Roger D. Greene

ON THE BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE, July 27—(Delayed)—(AP)—A German attempt to exploit a new aerial weapon—a pilotless pick-a-back bomber crammed with explosives—ended in a spectacular but harmless crash into the sea off a British beachhead, it was disclosed today. The crewless plane was shot down by an RAF fighter several nights ago.

"It made a colossal splash but that's all," said Capt. R. C. Lewis, who witnessed the end of the bomber from his beach anti-aircraft post.

"The idea is old but the Germans have given it a new twist. It's a Messerschmitt-109 fighter 'married' to a Junkers-88 bomber," Lewis said. "The Junkers is stripped of all armament and its glasshouse, or nose, is filled with explosives to make a warhead."

"The planes take off together, pick-a-back style, with the Junkers remotely controlled by the Messerschmitt pilot who guides it until the last moment when it set on a course to crash."

Interesting Bits of News From Overseas

By Hal Boyle
WITH THE AEF IN FRANCE, July 21—(AP)—(Delayed) The most indignant prisoner taken in France was the drunken German sniper who became weary in an isolated hedgerow post and wandered into an American infantry contingent—waving a bottle.

In broken English he invited the surprised doughboys to have a drink with him. When they refused and promptly tossed him into a prisoner of war enclosure he became very angry. He just wanted a few moments of sociable truce before he went back to earning his army pay sniping.

It was dark and Capt. Raymond A. Valliere, Dover, N. H., and Charles Lawrence, Ottawa, Kas., were looking for a new, and of course, comparatively safe spot to set up regimental command headquarters. The jeep driver, Pvt. Thomas A. Harris, Detroit, drove them several miles forward until they found a well-camouflaged area. Satisfied they started back.

After returning 200 yards they bumped into their own advancing doughboys digging in. They had picked the site for the command post in no-man's land.

Some frontline medics had bedded down for the night in an eerie French farm house when one of them inquired:

"Did you fellows hear anything?"

"No, it was just one of our men moving around upstairs," said Capt. Edmund H. Torkleson, Seattle, Wash. — and the group fell asleep.

The next morning they awoke to see two Germans crawling from the closets in the same room. The Jerries gave up to the unarmed medics.

Fire Destroys Car, Garage

Fire believed to have started from a short in the electric wiring of a 1937 Chevrolet coupe of Ray Dirck, 1012 East Sixteenth street destroyed the automobile and garage, also damaged another garage across the alley, about 1:54 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Dirck was sitting in his home when his little dog became excited and barked. Making an investigation to see what was wrong, his attention was attracted to the fire. The blaze had gained considerable headway before the fire companies arrived.

The loss to the Dirck garage and automobile was estimated at $550, and about $40 damages to the garage of O. F. Balke, 1021 East Seventeenth street, across the alley.

Boys who will attend 4-H camp as representatives of this club are Jean Creeluis, Percy Creeluis, Jr., and Jack D. Smith. The camp will convene from July 30 to August 2 at the Recreational Area of the Lake of the Ozarks.

Miss Beulah Armstrong, a club leader, will also attend.

Mrs. Pauline A. Heerman, 59, wife of Joseph T. Heerman, died at their home, 212 South Quincy avenue, at 11:30 o'clock this morning. She had been ill for several years due to a stroke.

Mrs. Heerman, a lifelong resident of Sedalia, was born here November 28, 1884, a daughter of the late Henry and Ellen Stefens. From early childhood she was reared by her uncle and aunt, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher. She was a member of the Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church.

Surviving Mrs. Heerman are her husband, two sons, Harold J. Heerman, 1100 Wilkerson, and Paul Heerman of Kansas City and a daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Satterwhite, 218 South Quincy avenue. She also is survived by four grandchildren, Margaret Kay and Jimmie Joe Satterwhite, Gordon Lee Heerman of Sedalia and Patricia Ann Heerman of Kansas City; two sisters, Mrs. Mattie Fuller, St. Louis and Mrs. Fred Hayes, Villa Grove, Ill., and a brother, Henry Stefens, St. Louis. She was preceded in death by one sister, Mrs. Arthur Farthing of Sedalia and three brothers.

The body was taken to the Gillespie funeral home. Arrangements for services have not been made pending the arrival of Paul Heerman from Kansas City.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. L. Ackerman, who died Tuesday morning about 4 o'clock at her home one and one-half miles south of Smithton, will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church in Smithton with the Rev. Earl Dillon officiating. Burial will be in the Smithton cemetery. The body will be taken to the family home from Neumeier's funeral home this evening.

Palbearers will be Will Ficken, Paul Erfurth, Martin Lindeman, George Juries, James Williams and the Rev. Frank Cook.

Music will be in charge of Mrs. Stanley Kahrs.

Mrs. Ackerman, the former Miss Vesta Mae Ackerman, was born at Westingham Springs, S. Dak., October 20, 1905, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Strong. She was married to C. L. Ackerman October 6, 1924.

Survivors are her parents of Bridgewater, S. Dak.; her husband, a farmer of Smithton; and the following six sons: Lyle of Bridgewater, S. Dak., Clyde, who left Monday for service in the air corps, and Floyd, Robert, Donald and Jerald of the home. A sister, Mrs. Myrtle Orman, of Marion, S. Dak., also survives.

The Ackerman family came to Smithton the early part of this year.

Couple Charivariated At Early Morning Hour

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans, of Dresden, a newly married couple, were "entertained" at a charivari at an unusually early hour this morning.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Evans are employed on shifts when they leave at early morning hours, and their neighbors, numbering about twenty, went to their home at 4:00 o'clock this morning. They aroused the couple with various noisemakers, then were invited in, and were served coffee and cake.

Boy Admits The Taking Of Cars

A 13-year-old boy was taken to police headquarters by an officer Tuesday about 5:30 p. m. just after he had been found getting out of a car which had been taken from its parking place a half hour before. The car was that of Albert Upton, Green Ridge, and had been taken from Fifth street and Lamine avenue. The boy was found at the same location.

When questioned by Chief of Police Anson Finnell and Juvenile Officer Cecil Glenn, the youngster admitted taking the car of Mrs. John Pfeiffer, of Warrensburg, Mo., which had been reported sometime before that as stolen from Fourth street and Kentucky avenue, but later located.

Also he had taken the car of Joe King, route 3, Sedalia, from 200 West Main street to the Sedalia Milling Co., a few days ago.

Naming several other youths from the same neighborhood, he told the officers they had entered several homes and taken numerous articles, causing damage in some instances.

This morning charges of automobile theft and also burglary and larceny were filed against the boy who was caught with the car, while charges of burglary and larceny were filed against three other boys, all in Juvenile Court. The quartet is to be given a hearing before Judge Dimmitt Hoffman, in Juvenile court, Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock.

Upon receiving a report of the car thefts Tuesday afternoon, Officer William Hatfield, went in one of the cruising cars in hopes of finding one or both vehicles.

As he drove past Fifth street and Lamine avenue, he noticed the last car reported as stolen and a boy getting out of it. He immediately took the boy into custody.

Late Market Reports Livestock, Grain, Produce, Securities

Grain Futures Down

By Tom Williams

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—(AP)—All grain futures turned downward in late trading, with breaking more than a cent from the day's best figures and wheat influenced by the bearish supply picture and the possibility of an early peace in Europe.

The crowd in the wheat pit definitely leaned to the selling side but hesitated to extend short lines because of government price supporting measures.

The new crop of spring wheat already is moving marketward but brokers said hedging sales so far have been light. Minneapolis line elevator company reported that prospects were for a smaller crop than indicated several weeks ago but that the wild still will be a large one.

After holding firm most of the day oats eased back to near yesterday's closing prices. A depressing factor was the fact that cash oats offered in eastern states are selling at about 8 1/2 cents, more than 10 cents below the ceiling price which prevailed several weeks ago.

Profit taking checked the upturn in rye and when professional selling developed traders found the demand had diminished.

At the close wheat was 1/4 to 3/4 cent lower than yesterday's close, September $1.55 1/2 to $1.55 1/2. Oats were 1/4 cent higher to 1/2 cent lower, September 7 1/4 c. Rye was off 1/4 to 1/2 cent September $1.05 1/2 to $1.05 1/2. Barley was unchanged to 1/4 cent higher, September $1.12 1/2.

Central List Irregular

By Bernard S. O'Hara

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(AP)—Steels, motors and specialties were given fair support today as most other stock market departments remained in the grip of summer lassitude.

The general list near the close was irregular although fractional gains predominated. Dealings were approximately 800,000 shares.

While volume was an improvement over the slower days of the last week or so there were continuing signs of speculative restraints associated with recent ideas a sudden ending of the European phase of the war.

No information was available immediately as to the number of other casualties in the crash which occurred as the plane took off from an unnamed Pacific base.

Is Your Blood Here?

One of the Allies' great records of this war is the extremely high percentage of wounded soldiers who are saved—thanks to modern medical science. Anyone of the greatest factors in that record is the role played by blood plasma—given to the American Red Cross by volunteer donors—such as you, perhaps. The photo shows sealed containers of blood for transfusions to wounded Yanks, lined up in Normandy field after being delivered by transport plane.

Gift Collections From The Smithsonian Institute

J. L. Curry, president of the Pettis County Historical society, has received two valuable gift collections, comprising 90 pieces, from the famous Smithsonian Institution at Washington, D. C., for the museum at the county court house, a high recognition for the local society.
The smaller of the collections is composed of five pieces of Indian clothing, termed ethnological specimens by the Institution. Eighty-five archaeological objects, principally ivory implements from from Alaska, form the other collection.

Through Congressman

Direct local contact concerning the Smithsonian gifts to the museum was made by Milton Henlein of the Terry hotel, an active worker in promoting the interests of the society, while he was on a trip east, through introductions to Marion Bennett, a representative in Congress from the Sixth Missouri district.

Letter To Judge

In regard to the sending of the items Mr. Bennett on July 28 wrote the following letter to Judge J. V. Kesterson, presiding judge of the Pettis county court and a vice president of the society board:

"Dear Judge Kesterson:
"In November 1943 you will recall that at the request of the Pettis County Historical Society I took up with the Smithsonian Institution the question of securing some specimens for your Society. I am glad to inform you that the Smithsonian Institution has been able to comply with my request and has forwarded to Mr. Curry, the president of your Society, a selection of five ethnological specimens and some eighty-five archaeological objects.

"I am glad to have been of this service in helping build up the display of the Pettis County Historical Society and assure you that if I can be of further service in the future as your Representative in Congress I will be glad to have you call upon me.

"Yours very truly,
(signed)
Marion T. Bennett M. C."

Explanatory Lists

Accompanying the shipment were complete lists of identifying data for each relic.

A general definition of ethnology is "the science that treats of the division of mankind into races, their origin, distribution and relations, and the peculiarities which characterized them," and a second definition is "cultural or social anthropology as distinguished from archaeology and physical anthropology." In other words the fine samples of Smithsonian Institution show a certain cultural and social progress of that race.

For the purpose of understanding the importance of the 85-piece collection this definition of archaeology is helpful: "the scientific study of the material remains of past human life and human activities, such as fossil human relics, artifacts implements, inscriptions etc., especially from prehistoric or ancient times."

The collections will be placed in cases at the museum sometime next week, along with the lists telling the story of the articles.

New cases are being added with regularity to the museum and interesting exhibit pieces are being offered almost daily to the society.

Saved Bradshaw From Losing Vote

LEBANON, Mo., Aug. 2.—(P)—Jean Paul Bradshaw almost lost his own vote for the Republican nomination for Governor of Missouri Tuesday.

Casting his primary election ballot at his home here, he dropped it into the ballot box before it had been properly initiated by election clerks. But they dug it out and rectified the omission.

Bradshaw voted at 1:25 p. m. Thirty five minutes later State Sen. Phil M. Donnelly, also from Lebanon, who ran for governor on the Democratic ticket, cast his ballot.

The gubernatorial chances of its two native sons were the chief interest of this Ozark town of 8,000 population in today's primary election.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 — One of the most potent and effective lobbies in Washington is now operating quietly backstage to gut the GI bill, best legislation ever passed by congress for the benefit of war veterans.

The lobby is a combination of mortgage banks and building and loan associations, now operating to increase the interest rate on loans to veterans for building homes, also to make the government guarantee all these loans so there will be no risk to bankers.

Here are the details of what they are driving at. Section 500 of the GI bill has an excellent provision whereby the Veterans' Administration can lend money to help veterans build or acquire homes at an interest rate of 4 per cent, with the government guaranteeing 50 per cent, or up to $2,000.

Section 505 then provides that veterans may get second loans from private institutions with the government guaranteeing only 20 per cent. The interest rate on this second loan, it is also provided, shall be one per cent additional, or a total of 5 per cent.

However, the national housing administration and the veterans' administration are being pressured by the mortgage lobby to read into section 505 government insurance of the entire second loan. Also the pressure boys want to raise the interest rate to 6 per cent.

Hitherto the building and loan companies did not go in for insured loans, but now a bloc of leaders in the industry advocate government insurance — though some few oppose. Thus the loan companies not only would have their business guaranteed against loss, but if successful in their lobby scheme also would get interest rates increased.

What the loan lobby undoubtedly forces is that the GI bill may inaugurate the greatest era of lending and building in the history of the USA. With 10,000,000 veterans demobilized, it is not unreasonable to believe that half, or 5,000,000 may want home loans. This would mean a total of $20,000,000 lent by the government only, overshadowing any home-loan program the world has seen.

At present the pressure is on Veterans' Administrator Brigadier General Frank T. Hines. What the result will be remains to be seen.

Note — Congress generally gives credit as the chief pioneer in promoting passage of the GI bill to William Randolph Hearst.

Artist Had Rollof Idea
Few people outside General Hap Arnold's personal staff know about it, but back in 1939 he was flying with the same idea of the flying bomb which Hitler is now using to terrorize London.

General Arnold admitted this in a letter to his old friend, the late General Hugh S. Johnson, which has just come to light. Johnson had received a suggestion regarding the flying bomb from Harry O'Neill, creator of the daily comic strip "Broncho Bill," who told old Iron Pants "it sounds crackpot, but I believe it would overwhelm the enemy without jeopardizing the life of a single soldier."

O'Neill went on to describe in detail almost exactly the same thing which Hitler is now using against London. General Johnson, thinking the idea was important for the U. S. army to investigate, sent it to General Arnold, who replied on March 16, 1939 as follows:

"Dear Johnson: There is something in what your friend, H. O'Neill has to say about aerial bombs. As a matter of fact, as you probably remember, we counted on doing just that during the World War, and at the time the war closed we had a device pretty well perfected which would carry about 200 pounds of explosives to a point some hundred miles or more. The whole thing was built very cheaply. However, the toy airplane idea is something entirely different. It takes just so much power and so much wing spread to lift 100 pounds of explosives and when you add the weight of the engine and the airplane itself to the 100-pound bomb the device increases in size fairly rapidly and gets out of the toy class. However, the idea is a good one and is one that we are even now thinking of very seriously.

Thanks for bringing it to my attention.

"Sincerely yours,
"(Signed) H. H. Arnold."

This was approximately five months before the Germans touched off World War II by invading Poland. General Arnold did not go ahead with the idea. The Nazis did.

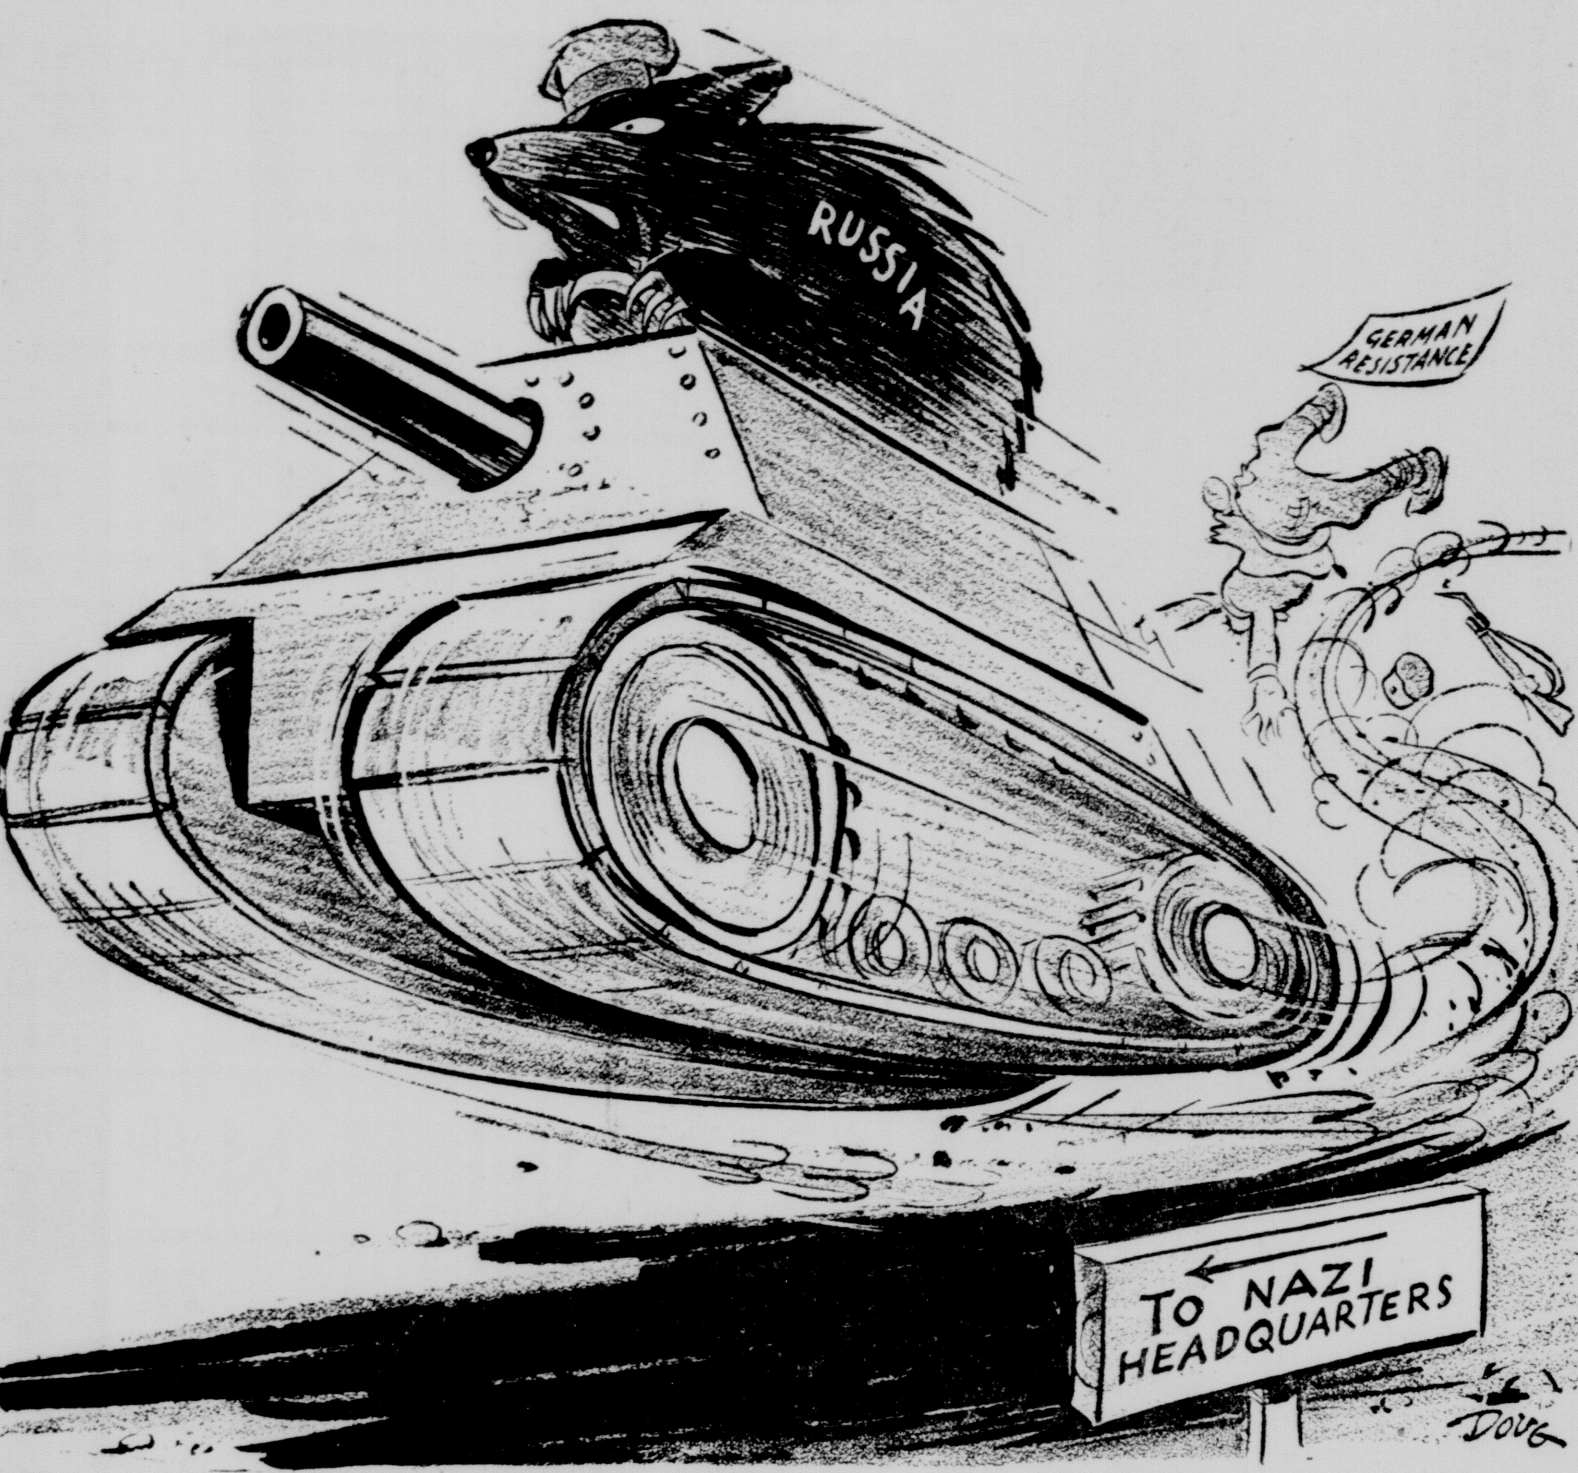

From Rubber to Whisky
Inside reason for the "whisky holiday" is that there is too much raw synthetic rubber on hand waiting to be processed. Due to the shortage of manpower in the rubber industry, manufacturers are unable to use all the synthetic available to them; haven't the labor force to fabricate tires and other rubber goods — especially for civilian use.

Synthetic deteriorates in quality if not processed within a few months, and if larger and larger quantities continue to pile up, a good deal of the synthetic rubber will be useless. Most of the petroleum process plants for synthetic are still not in full production, despite the fact that it is now two and a half years since Pearl Harbor. So the surplus is accounted for mainly by alcohol processes.

That's why WPB decided to permit the use of alcohol for whisky for the month of August.

Note — For months far-sighted Senator Gillette pled and stormed at Jesse Jones to use alcohol for synthetic rubber, thus aiding the farmers of the future. But Jones stuck to the slower method of rubber from petroleum manufactured by his friends, the big oil companies. Bernie Baruch's report admitted the feasibility of quicker rubber from alcohol, but little was done about it.

WE have trained our soldiers to be their own blitz doctors. Their first aid kits contain a newly invented life saver which the soldier himself is able to apply: sulfa drugs and powdered sulfathiazole. He is supposed to take three tablets of sulfa drug as soon as he is wounded, and then pour into the wound itself the miraculous red-yellow sulfathiazole powder which kills the bacteria that in former times killed the man. Sulfa drugs have already saved many American lives because they serve to prevent contamination from being converted into infection. While on the one hand, every effort is being made to minimize the interval between injury and hospitalization, on the other, sulfa drugs are now extending the lag. Men who would once have died in the field or succumbed on the way to the hospital now arrive in better condition and with a greatly improved chance for speedy recovery.

The First Aid men, too, are blitz doctors. They carry two important life savers to the battlefield and apply them on the premises without the loss of a precious minute: morphine and blood plasma. Morphine is not only a relief to the suffering but, properly administered, serves to delay the onset of shock and to diminish its severity.

The blessing of blood transfusion is well known. Now, since men are brought to the hospital in much better condition than ever before in a war, their chances of surviving are almost 100 per cent.

Every soldier is aware of this and it is one of the reasons why the boys in their beds are patient and even cheerful. Soft-boiled egg complaints do not exist. Whatever they receive in food and care is taken with appreciation.

The most touching examples of modesty are the red-headed twins who came yesterday. They arrived all by themselves in a jeep, rivulets of perspiration running down their lobster-red faces.

"Keep away, nurse," they cried at the reception desk, "we're contagious!"

They looked it, and how! The orderly put them up in the isolation cell, now cleared of the Jerries who had been sent to a prison camp infirmary. You don't have to be a doctor to diagnose scarlet fever.

I saw them in the evening, Charlie and Johnnie. Identical even to the tousled forelock that no military haircut could tame.

"Oh, nurse, what a nuisance we are! Good for nothing! We wait a year to come to the battlefield, and then we get a kid's disease!"

They think in plural and talk in plural, if they smile they smile in plural; a smile that starts at the eyes and breaks all over their faces down to their deep dimples.

"We have been a nuisance from the beginning," Johnnie resumes, "a dumb-foot to our First Sergeant, another mouth to feed for Cooky. Then we improved to a trainee and a sort of manpower to the General Staff, and finally became an advanced element, something expendable, something fit for war. And now we're not even potential casualties to the Medical Corps. We're just a plain nuisance again."

"Next time it'll be measles, I know, or mumps," Charlie mused. "But before I get whooping cough I'll kill myself!"

ANOTHER example of modesty is our only Arab patient, Ahmed Abdullah, the son of a famous Bash Agha: that is, chief of a tribe. Ahmed, a young man of 23, offered his services to the American General Staff the very first day of the invasion. As he was an expert in mountain and desert routes, he was attached to a staff of officers in this region. An acute appendicitis brought him to our hospital and here he is, feeling rather uncomfortable among Infidels who are washed and bedded in public and don't give a thought as to whether their bodies are wrapped or naked.

As soon as he came to after the operation, he was aware of nurses everywhere and with a horrified look in his dark eyes implored Dr. Merrill that he never be helped by a female nurse. The doctor granted his request, asking only that he might send, from time to time, a French speaking nurse to serve as interpreter since the only male nurse was strictly a monolingualist.

The bed next to George, our philosophy student, was vacant, so Ahmed was put beside the slowly recovering Princetonian, who hoped to profit from a discussion of Oriental wisdom. But Ahmed, though politically open-minded and friendly to the American occupation of North Africa, was very conservative regarding his customs and religion and didn't trust a foreigner who wanted to talk about these delicate matters.

He spoke the most cultivated French, having been educated in a French Lycee and trained in Medersa, the College of Mohammedan Law in Algiers. As successor to his father, leader of 2000 people, he would become chief of four sheikhs and he needed a profound knowledge of law.

When, on the third day after his operation, Ahmed was able to move his head and hands without pain, he asked us to give him his turban which he wanted to wear in bed. He wound the three pieces, gamouze, chech, and khiet, around his head with the dexterity of a juggler, and finally looked like the Hollywood version of a sheik. Then he asked to have his bed turned toward the east so that he might say his prayers whenever the call of the Muezzin resounded.

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

The closed season on doves, meadow larks and plover expired Monday, and it will be lawful to shoot them until the first day of January.

Joseph Sewell, the West Main street caterer, has purchased a one-half interest in the Leslie grocery store on that thoroughfare.

The annual outing of the Missionary society of the First Christian church will be held at Forest park Friday afternoon, August 5. The lighting committee of the city council and Supt. R. B. Hamner yesterday arrived at an understanding regarding the lighting of the streets of the city from month to month on the moonlight schedule, or until such time as the city enters into a yearly contract with some company, so there is no danger of more darkness than pedestrians have been accustomed to for some months past. The new price is slightly in advance over the old one.

James A. Robb, driver for the Pacific Express company will have charge of the company's night office at the Missouri Pacific depot, commencing tonight.

Harry Pregge, son of John Pregge, and E. D. Francis, late with C. E. Messerly, have purchased the grocery store of Mr. Pregge, 212 West Second street.

This is a Tried and Proved Idea

Dropped in to see Judge Cunningham the other night. Got to talking about one thing and another including the brewers' self-regulation program.

The judge settled back in his easy chair, stretched his legs full length and took a few puffs on the old briar.

"You know, Joe," he said, "this business of self-regulation is nothin' new. Self-regulation is what the doctors had in mind when they organized the American Medical Association."

"For the same purpose, the legal profession has the Bar Association, professional baseball has Judge Landis and the motion picture industry has Will Hays.

"In the same spirit of cooperation, the makers of malt beverages formed the Brewing Industry Foundation to insure their products bein' sold on a high and moral plane."

"Yes," I agreed, "and from where I sit, they're doin' a darn fine job of it. The Foundation's Missouri committee is certainly an outstanding example!"

Twenty-Six Die In Plane Accidents

MUROC ARMY AIRBASE, Calif. Aug. 2 — (AP) — Seventeen army fliers presumably died Tuesday morning in the collision of two B-24 bombers in the rugged Death Valley country 12 miles southwest of Furnace Creek Inn, Col. Gerald Hoyle airbase commanding officer, announced to-night.

Col. Hoyle said wreckage of the planes had been located from the air but that it probably would be tomorrow before it could be reached afoot. The planes, based here, were on training flight.

Nine Killed In Florida

AVON PARK, Fla., Aug. 2 — (AP) — Nine airmen from the Avon Park army air field were killed in the crash of a heavy bomber six miles east of St. Marys, Fla., Sunday night, Col. Clint T. Johnson, commanding officer of the field, announced Tuesday.

Those killed included: Pvt. Horace W. Newton, 2217 Stateline Ave., Texarkana, Tex. An earlier army announcement identified the plane as a B-17 Flying Fortress and said it crashed into a swamp.

Lull In England On Robot Attack

LONDON, Aug. 2 — (AP) — England had a comparative lull in robot bomb attacks Tuesday with at least two robot launching sites apparently knocked out of commission between Calais and Cap Gris Nez.

The unmanned missiles again sent coastal anti-aircraft guns into action, but only a few reached southern England, including the London area. The German tactics of sending salvos or clusters to reach the channel coast simultaneously appeared in abeyance.

At The
Sedalia Armory

If you are able-bodied, a true American, and if you can spare a few hours one night each week—then you have a duty—you owe it to yourself and to your state to join the Missouri State Guard. Company F of Sedalia needs 30 new recruits this week. Think it over—then join the Missouri State Guard.

"Your Public Servant For Years"

"SORRY," Said the Conductor

"But It Just Isn't True..."

"WHOEVER told you the wartime travel peak had been passed hasn't done much traveling lately. It's true, of course, that millions of our fighting men are overseas but there's still a lot of them in training over here. Matter of fact our Missouri Pacific Lines' trains are pretty well filled every day with men in uniform, either traveling on orders or going to or from their homes while on furlough.

"Then too, friends and relatives in large numbers continue to go back and forth to camps to visit service men; war plant workers and their families are constantly on the move and it is necessary for an unusually large number of people to make important business trips.

"So, you see, travel conditions are not back to normal, and because we haven't been able to buy any more equipment, coaches and sleeping cars on most of our trains are still pretty well crowded.

"And now we also have sick and wounded service men to take care of and we must give them 'preference and priority' even if it means cancelling sleeping car space civilians have bought and paid for. Of course no American is going to object to that but it's another reason why we can't at all times have seats and berths for everyone.

"We railroaders are sorry we can't make travel as comfortable and pleasant as it was before the war but we're happy we've been privileged to do so much to speed up Victory. We're handling more freight today than ever before and 70 percent of it is directly or indirectly connected with the war effort.

"Everybody seems to realize that 'without the railroads,' as one general put it last week, 'the war might of the nation could not have been mobilized' and now that the invasion is on, their task is going to be even greater than before. In addition to moving war freight, armed forces and civilians, the railroads are hauling just about everything everybody in this country eats or uses.

"People generally seem to appreciate the big and useful job the railroads are doing and they're as helpful and cooperative as they can be. And their understanding attitude makes us more determined than ever to do everything we can to keep traffic moving and at the same time maintain our pre-war standards of courteous service."

Browns Add To Lead in American

Cardinals With Mort
Cooper Trample the Lowly Dodgers

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

St. Louis boasted a 5½ game lead in the American league today after brushing off eastern opposition in 11 of 16 starts to pace the western clubs to a decisive triumph in the fourth intersec-tional series of the season.

While the Browns operated on home soil, the traveling Cardinals wound up their second tour of the Atlantic seaboard with a fancy 14 out of 17 win record as all western Nationals broke 500 or better.

Only the Boston Red Sox, who won 9 of 15 starts, upheld the honor of the east in either league with a few scattered games to be played before clubs head home.

Washington, winner of only one in 16 and loser of 11 straight, hit bottom with an .063 mark for the tour.

Sig Jakucki hurled the Browns into an 11-6 nod over the Nats last night with Very Stephens' four hits helping to send Dutch
Leonard down for the eighth time.

Boston fell before Cleveland, 8-4, but kept second place when the Yankees lost to Detroit by the same score. Philadelphia nosed out Chicago, 2-1, as Gordy Maltzberger lost his third game in a relief role to Joe Berry when Buddy Hall tripled and scored on Hal
Epps' long fly in the 12th.

The Cardinals and Mort Cooper avenged Monday's beating by Brooklyn when they walloped the Dodgers, 14-3. Cooper, belted out in three rounds the night before, coasted to win No. 14 behind a 17-hit barrage off Whit Wyatt and four successors. It was Wyatt's first start since June 28 due to arm trouble.

Cincinnati pulled out a tight 5-4 game from New York on Ed Heusser's fine relief pitching and hitting. The Red Leg pitcher singled in the ninth and scored the winning run to beat Harry Feldman. Frank McCormick drove in four of Cincy's runs.

Pittsburgh held a 12-8 lead on Boston when their game was called at the end of the eighth by agreement. It went as a "suspended" game to be completed Sept. 25. Babe Dahlgren drove in six runs with four hits, including a homer and Dutch Neiman of Boston hit for the circuit twice.

A Chicago-Philadelphia doubleheader was postponed because of the bus and trolley strike in Philadelphia.

Cardinals Go Get 'Em

This picture typifies spirit of flaming St. Louis Cardinals. Whitey Kurowski leaps and reaches into Ebbets Field stand to spear Paul Waner's foul fly with gloved hand as Red Birds sweep double header with Dodgers 14-2 and 12-7. Note the ball in his glove. Umpire Larry Goetz signals the third baseman to get back on the field.

Sports Roundup

By Fritz Howell

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(AP)—A
Haney haw-haw!

Back in 1937 Roy Cullenbine,
current Cleveland outfielder, was doing a pretty good job at bat
and afield for Toledo's Mudhens
in the American Association—and
appeared headed for the big time.

One day fun-loving Fred Han-ey, Mudhen manager, called Cullenbine aside just before the game and whispered:

"Do your best out there today,
Roy. A couple of scouts are in the stands and want to talk to
you after the game."

Roy had a "3 for 4" day, made
a couple of circus catches, and felt just a bit chummy as Haney led him to a box behind the Mudhen
dugout.

"Roy," Haney said, "here are the scouts who wanted to meet
you!"

And there, faces beaming, were two Boy Scouts—in full uniform
—looking worshipfully at their
fuming, flustered favorite.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(AP)—A
Haney haw-haw!

Back in 1937 Roy Cullenbine,
current Cleveland outfielder, was
doing a pretty good job at bat
and afield for Toledo's Mudhens
in the American Association—and
appeared headed for the big time.

One day fun-loving Fred Han-
ey, Mudhen manager, called Cullenbine aside just before the
game and whispered:

"Do your best out there today,
Roy. A couple of scouts are in the stands and want to talk to
you after the game."

Roy had a "3 for 4" day, made
a couple of circus catches, and felt just a bit chummy as Haney led him to a box behind the Mudhen
dugout.

"Roy," Haney said, "here are the scouts who wanted to meet
you!"

And there, faces beaming, were
two Boy Scouts—in full uniform
—looking worshipfully at their fuming, flustered favorite.
